Aside from the serious inconvenience and pain caused by piles, there is a tendency to fistula and to cancer in the rectal region. Piles should not be allowed to run on unchecked. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment is an infallible remedy. Price, 50 cents a bottle, tubes 75 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

FLOTSAM—JETSAM—LIGAN!

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Bonanza passed down from Pomeroy yesterday.

The Keystone State will pass up tonight for Pittsburgh.

The Avalon for the headwaters of Kanawha passed up last night.

The City of Pittsburgh passed down this morning for Louisville.

The Henry M. Stanley goes to Kanawha river and way points tonight.

The J. H. McConnell will pass down with thirteen strings of timber for Louisville.

There's an ugly snag in the river just below Eagle creek. It is an old tree with the top off and lays with the dangerous end down the river. A towboat sunk a barge there one day last week.

There's a good substantial rise coming out of the Allegheny which will assure packet water for several days longer than was anticipated by the packet lines. All towboats will now get to Pittsburgh.

The river traffic of Louisville has made a wonderful increase lately, there being no room left at the landing to allow the excursion boats to unload their cargo of humanity, and there's a kick going up.

The recent fleet that left Louisville for the South was composed of 10 towboats, 101 coal-boats, 44 barges, 25 fuelboats and 26 model and square barges containing steel rails and manufactured iron. At last accounts the fleet was proceeding in good shape.

A company has been organized to build a bridge across the Kentucky river, just above the mouth of the stream, one that if allowed to be built at the elevation contemplated would be quite an obstruction to navigation. But as the United States bridge law will have to be complied with, it is not likely that it will be built, except at a high elevation, and not as now contemplated by the bridge company.

The Pittsburgh towboat John Moren is now on her way from Louisville to New Orleans with one of the largest, if not the largest, tows of iron ever handled by one steamboat on the river. She has over 9,500 tons, which includes one barge of cotton ties. All the remainder of the tow is steel rails belonging to the Carnegie Company of Pittsburgh, and is being shipped to New Orleans for the Southern Pacific Railroad. The Pilots of the Moren are George Clarke and Gus Seifort, two of the best in the business.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor located it and said it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drugstore and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. BARCOCK, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.
